THE WRONG PASSENGER.

It is a duty of registrars to be at a certain place in their precincts to register ALL parties who may prove to be legally entitled to vote in that precinct. Holton is vehemently "instructing" registrars throughout the state to bestir themselves to get registered all men who oppose democratic success. He has woke up the wrong passenger with one of his circular letters as will be seen from the following:

Aberdeen, N. C., Sept. 26.—In our town is a laborer, W. S. Hurley. He was by some mistake appointed as a radical registrar. He is a white man and a good democrat and is the maddest man in Sand Hill township. A. E. Holton has written him in regard to his duty as a rad.-pop. registrar. The following is a copy of the letter: "Headquarters Republican State Executive Committee, Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 20, 1898.

"Dear Sir: Your attention is especially called to the great importance of the registration of all voters who oppose the democratic bosses and ring rule. It will not do to neglect the opportunity to register, nor to have your neighbor, who thinks politically as you do, to neglect to register.

"The victory in 1896 may induce our voters to think that no special exertion is necessary in this election, and our negligence may result in our defeat. Let me urge you to interest yourself and your friends in the result of the next election; let me entreat and advise you to assist in the formation of campaign clubs in your township and county, and also to attend the meetings that the republicans and populists will hold in your neighborhood.

"I hope it will be your pleasure to assist in every way that you can to make success a certainty.

"Upon this action this year may depend your right to vote for years to come, for it is a foregone conclusion that if the democrats control the next legislature they will pass such laws as will render it impossible for the will of the people to be expressed at the ballot box. I shall be glad to hear from you occasionally with respect to the progress of politics in your precinct."

THOMAS F. BAYARD.

Our press despatches yesterday afternoon foreshadowed the fact that the end was near. At about 4:30 o'clock Hon. Thomas F. Bayard breathed his last. He descended from a long line of noble ancestry. He did not depend upon that fact to win distinction for himself. He was a great man and his greatness showed itself in his eventful life. He was a true friend of the south when sectional feeling was most bitter; because of this he never reached the presidency, to which he aspired, party leaders believing that his record as the south's friend would injure his candidacy in the north.

We quote the following closing words from an editorial in today's Charlotte Observer:

"Gradually with the change of thought in the democratic party, he lost contact with it. He could not, with changing conditions, alter the principles to which he had been reared and the defence of which had made his political life a history of strife and conflict. Mr. Cleveland recognized nobly his gifts and virtues, making him the premier of his first cabinet and in his second term ambassador to Great Britain. But he died a man without a party, yet if this truth embittered him he kept it to himself; he was too great to betray it to the world. He was an exemplar for people of all ages, and 'This earth that bears the dead Bears not alive so stout a gentleman.'"

It is, to say the least of it, rather cheeky in a newspaper which has so little respect for the church as to refer to Methodist district conferences as "primaries" in an offensive, partisan sense, to undertake to instruct, or enlighten the public or to influence public opinion as to whether it is right or wrong for Trinity College to accept money from Mr. Duke, or to say to the board of trustees—all of them men of character and standing—that they are not competent to select a president for the institution. That is just about the size of one of our contemporaries.

To Take Merritt Down.

The Republican managers are trying to get the populists to pull "Judge" Merritt off the judicial ticket in order to substitute Major A. W. Graham.

A republican said last evening: "Merritt is too weak a brother to sit upon the Superior court bench. We are willing to run him for the Senate. He ought to be satisfied with this." Judge Adams does not want Merritt to come down. He urges his retention on the ticket, giving as his reason that there should be one populist nominee in the district. He thinks that the candidacy of an entire republican ticket would cripple his chances still further. The Governor is extremely anxious that Merritt should make way for Graham.

Chairman Holton said yesterday that he had information that Alex. Bailey, who was nominated by the insurgents in the Eighth district would decline the nomination.—Morning Post.

Frivolous and Foolish.

Without taking either side of the Clark-Kilgo controversy, with which we have nothing in the round world to do, we may be permitted to say that those gentlemen who are trying to make capital out of the "diamond ring episode," as it is called, are engaged in a very frivolous and foolish business, to say the least. They are extremely excited because Dr. Kilgo said that a woman can be led anywhere with a diamond ring. Suppose he did say it. We have heard many a speaker say similar things in a humorous way, and so have these gentlemen. Of course everybody knows that Dr. Kilgo has too much sense to have intended a reflection on the women of North Carolina.—Charity and Children.

American Soldier Killed.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Sept. 28.—An American soldier was shot by Spaniards at Aguadilla Monday night. A native Porto Rican received word that his place was to be raided by outlaws and asked American and Spanish commanders for aid, neglecting, however, to notify either that he had asked protection from both. When the Spanish and American soldiers arrived on the scene of the threatened raid each mistook the other for outlaws and each fired a volley. One member of a Kentucky regiment was killed.

You invite disappointment when you experiment. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are pleasant, easy, thorough little pills. They cure constipation and sick headache just as sure as you take them.—Howard Gardner.

Alger Has Returned.

Washington, Sept. 28.—Secretary Alger returned to his desk in the war department today, where he received the bureau chiefs. A statement is expected from him later in the day.

The quartermaster department shifts the blame for not supplying the troops with proper clothing and says it is due to a lack of system in the Adjutant General's office. This shifts the blame to an administrative branch and an effort will be made to bring out this state of affairs before the inquiry commission.

"Truth wears well. People have learned that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are reliable little pills for regulating the bowels, curing constipation and sick headache. They don't gripe." Howard Gardner.

No Successor to Winnie Davis.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 27.—Large numbers of the members of the Confederate Memorial Literary Society which some time ago purchased the old White House of the Confederacy and established therein a large Confederate museum, held a meeting at the museum today and discussed the action of some of the southern and the Chicago Confederate veterans in suggesting Miss Lucy Lee Hill as the successor of the late Winnie Davis, as the Daughter of the Confederacy. They decided unanimously that there could be no successor to Miss Davis, who was the only woman born in the White House of the Confederacy, and therefore she alone was entitled to the distinction. They all agreed that Miss Hill is one of the most popular and highly esteemed of all Southern girls, but their approval could not be given to the proposition suggested.

One Minute Cough Cure surprises people by its quick cures and children may take it in large quantities without the least danger. It has won for itself the best reputation of any preparation used today for colds, croup, tickling in the throat or obstinate coughs. Howard Gardner.

Two Deaths at Ponce.

Washington, Sept. 27.—The war department received a message from General Brooke at Ponce, reporting two deaths among the American forces today.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

This is a story that has all the elements of the most interesting romance and carries with it a healthy tone, calculated to do good as well as furnish enjoyment. It is original in conception and the plot is unfolded in a way to help the interest of the reader constantly absorbed. Indeed, it is a pretty story, sweet in sentiment, and full of delicacy in the telling. The character drawing is excellent; the two girls, Ruth and Agnes, deserving high praise as two strong and highly finished studies.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23rd, says: "We all had diarrhea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., of Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by C. E.
Holton.

San Francisco, Sept. 28.—Great uneasiness is felt at the non arrival of the transports Senator, Ohio and Indiana now overdue from Manila. The Senator is thirty-five days out and is seven days overdue. The Zelandia,

CUBANS SUCCEED SPANIARDS.

The Civil Government of the Island Complete.

Santiago de Cuba, Sept. 28.—The system of civil government established by General Wood is practically complete and in working order. Maj. Mc-Cleary, formerly attorney-general for Texas, and a Spanish scholar, has been appointed mayor, and the Spanish officials are giving place to Cubans.
General Wood says he does not know the capabilities of the men taking office. They are chosen by a committee of fifty prominent Cubans, whom he believes to be honest and conscientious.

EFFICIENT MEN CHOSEN.

This committee recommends men whom its members think would be efficient in the various offices to be filled.
The choice of men by the committee must be unanimous, and must be made over the signature of the fifty members.

General Wood finds that the plan works admirably. Lieutenant Blount has been appointed to codify the Cuban laws.
Senor Rigney, one of the largest sugar planters, who has arrived here from Manzanillo, reports the conditions there worse than ever. The insurgents, he asserts, refuse to grant permission for the carrying on of the work on the plantations, and the Spanish officials decline to furnish protection to those desiring to work. Senor Rigney declares that since the cessation of hostilities the insurgents have confiscated his provisions and destroyed a number of valuable pictures, made his carpets into saddle cloths, torn and trampled curtains, and broke glasses worth $500 each. They are encamped in numbers at the sea town of Campe-chuela, where they compel small vessels which fall into their hands to hoist the Cuban flag.

MUCH SUFFERING.

William Stakeman, before the war American Consul at Manzanillo, arrived here today and paid a visit to General Wood. He recounted many lawless acts on the part of the insurgents, who, he declares, demand tribute from everyone, terrorize peaceful people and threaten the confiscation of the property of merchants and planters. Many persons say that the recognition of the Cubans has not been granted because the bandits make work and progress impossible. There is a general feeling of alarm in Manzanillo over the departure of the Spanish troops, and the American soldiers are anxiously awaited.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has the largest sale of any salve in the world. This fact and its merit has led dishonest people to attempt to counterfeit it. Look out for the man who attempts to deceive you when you call for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great pile cure.

Strike Growing.

Brockton, Mass., Sept. 28.—The latter's strike is extended to day in all directions as a result of the lasting machine company's putting agents in to operate various machines in place of the strikers. Even the concerns which had settled on the price list are not exempt.

Detectives Lost the Trail.

London, Sept. 28.—It is reported that the detectives have lost the track of Dr. Gullford, who arrived in Liverpool yesterday.

Special Notice.

Proposals will be received by the city of Greensboro, N. C., up to November 15, 1898, for lighting the streets of said city with electricity for a period of three or more years from January 1, 1899, said proposals to be based on seventy or more are lights of 1,200 candle power. City reserves right to reject any or all bids. Bids or inquiries should be addressed to B.
H. Merrimon, chairman light committee, Greensboro, N. C.

In connection with the above the Industrial and Immigration Association of Greensboro urges investors to investigate Greensboro as a place for building an electric street railway and power plant. Numerous small manufacturing concerns want power of this kind. Incandescent lights are wanted.
City has a population of over 10,000 and is growing rapidly. Unusual opportunity for those who mean business; no fakirs wanted. Information will be furnished by the I. & I. Association.

Remarkable Rescue

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine would cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was.—Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at C. E. Holton's drug store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

Parties out at the football ground Tuesday afternoon had the pleasure of seeing Messrs. John Michaux and Clem Wright cut up a small stump. A good part of the afternoon was occupied by the performance and much fun was made at the cutters. Judging from the time taken and the work done and making due allowance for the dullness of the axe it was estimated that it would take either of the gentlemen ten hours to cut enough wood to cook supper.

In Wake county as in Chatham the fusion candidate for the senate is a republican. This is the game that is being played all over the state. More republicans have been added to the fusion ticket in many counties, and thus the populist party is being gradually absorbed by the republicans. In the last legislature Wake's senator was a populist, just as was Chatham's. —Chatham Record.
